

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

-v-

12CR10080-GAO

LINDA CULKIN,

Defendant.

ASSENTED TO MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

COMES NOW the Defendant Linda Culkin, through her appointed counsel, Inga L. Parsons, and with the consent of the government by AUSA Scott Garland, and the Probation Officer, Chrissy Murphy, respectfully requests that the Sentencing scheduled for March 13, 2014 in this matter be continued thirty days or later.

In support of her request, counsel states that the probation officer and defense counsel have had some delays in the Presentence Investigation Interview due to the storm and counsel's unavailability as well as some difficulties regarding the transport of Ms. Culkin. An additional thirty days will allow for time to complete the interview and the investigation and finalize the report. As to the sentencing date, Counsel is unavailable due to school vacation for her son April 17th through April 25th but would be available before or after those dates at the Court's convenience.

For other good and just cause.

Dated: January 9, 2014

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Culkin
By her attorney,

/s/ Inga L. Parsons
